

Chapter Ten

1. The guilt of remaining sin

How do we deal with the guilt of sin when we really want to keep this particular sin close and available?

As believers how should the guilt of our sin actually be heightened in our conscience?

2. The danger of remaining sin

What does remaining sin aim at in the life of the believer?

What might be some consequences of remaining in sin as a believer?

Owen says that “there is such a connection between continuing in sin and eternal destruction”, and that “He will not deliver any from the destruction that does indeed continue in sin”

How does this fit with the assurance of salvation and the doctrine of the perseverance of the saints?

At what point does continuing in sin begin to call into question the reality of our faith in Christ?

3. The present evil of remaining sin.

What evils will coincide with sin that remains in the life of the believer?
