

Chapter 12

1. How will meditating on God's character assist in the process of mortification?
2. How does pride hinder mortification? How will a knowledge of God enable us to mortify our pride?
3. What benefit is there in reflecting on the distance between ourselves and God?
4. What advantage do we have over Old Testament believers?
5. How is our knowledge of God still limited?
6. How are we to make use of what we do know?
7. How do our own imaginations of God impact our struggle with sin?
8. What difference should there be between what a believer's knowledge of God looks like as compared to an unbeliever's knowledge of God?
9. How does the fact that we have such a limited knowledge of God, actually aid in the mortification of sin?
